AGENDA

11:45 AM – 12:00 PM: Log-In and Virtual Networking

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM: Presentation

Motivational Interviewing (MI) is an effective model of communication that uses a collaborative, goal-oriented style designed to strengthen personal motivation for and commitment to change goals. In this workshop, Rhonda DiNovo, LMSW, will lead an exploration of the style, spirit, and process of MI. Through a review of the history and theoretical framework, we will learn the importance of style and spirit in MI communication. Participants will gain an understanding of the process of facilitating MI communication to engage people and enhance our interactions in professional practice and everyday life.

BY ATTENDING OUR WORKSHOP, YOU WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Define the MI communication style
- Review the history and theoretical framework of MI
- Learn the importance of style and spirit in MI communication
- Understand the process of facilitating MI communication

Course Interaction and Technical Requirements: This live webinar is fully interactive. Attendees may ask and answer questions throughout the presentation and participate in instructor-led discussions. A computer or mobile device is required. Zoom account is not required. You will receive an email approximately 24 hours prior to the start of the event with a link to the webinar.

In order to receive credit, you must login on time, attend the entire presentation, and complete an evaluation within 30 minutes of the conclusion of the event. Attendance log and Zoom analytics will be reviewed by the CE Director. Certificates will be provided in approximately 5 business days.

Target audience: Social workers, case managers, counselors, discharge planners, nurses and other healthcare professionals – beginning to intermediate content level.
